To whom it may concern;

It is my pleasure to recommend Paralith by Mike Sieminski to you for consideration and publication.

This manuscript placed as a top-ten finalist in The Great Novel Contest 2019, the Ohio Writers' Association's annual competition for unpublished novel manuscripts.

The contest is quite competitive and Mike Sieminski's project distinguished itself both in the quality of the prose and the originality of the concept. I believe this manuscript could be an excellent fit for your organization.

This is a project and an author that deserve your consideration.

Warmly,

Brad Pauquette
